Your 2019 Gift makes it all possible, including:

- Educational Programs: school field trips, tours, Open Houses, activities at the museum, Hands-On History presentations in schools and throughout the community, craft materials, lectures, and a new memorial to the people enslaved here
- Preserving the Oldest House in Wake County: new exterior paint; replacing wood-shingle roofs; repairs to plaster, porches, doors, and weatherboards
- Museum Collection: new acquisitions and professional conservation of historical artifacts
- Garden: plants and signage; care and upkeep
- Tour Guides' and Volunteers' Costumes: the hand-sewn, period-correct petticoats, breeches, caps, and waistcoats that clothe our historical volunteers
- On-Going Expenses: the utilities, supplies, salaries, maintenance, etc. that keep us running day-to-day
